

Parents, Grandparents, and Godparents: Are you praying for your young ones?

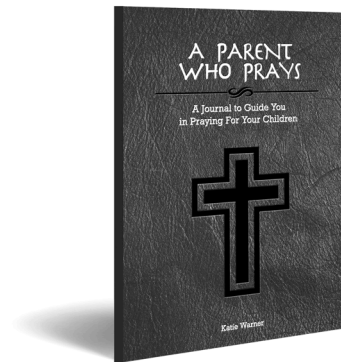

Perhaps there is no greater gift we can give our children, grandchildren, and godchildren than the gift of our prayers. It is in praying fervently for the children in our lives that we can help the life of grace flourish within their souls, aiding God in transforming them into the children He desires them to be.

Sometimes life happens, and we aren't as intentional about praying for our loved young ones as we would like to be. Allow these simple prayer guides and journals to give you the motivation and tools you need to make praying for your children, grandchildren, or godchildren a priority this year—and always.

A Parent Who Prays: A Journal to Guide You in Praying for Your Children by Katie Warner

A Grandparent Who Prays: A Journal to Guide You in Praying for Your Grandchildren by Katie Warner

A Godparent Who Prays: A Journal to Guide You in Praying for Your Godchildren by Katie Warner

These beautifully simple prayer journals contain:

- 52 unique special intentions for your child(ren)/grandchildren/godchildren,
- Scripture verses and quotes to reflect on,
- Space for writing specific intentions and spiritual bouquets you want to offer for your child(ren)/grandchildren/godchildren, and
- Recommendations for how to use the journal and prayer ideas.

A single journal can be used to pray for all of your children, grandchildren, or godchildren, OR multiple can be purchased so you can devote one journal for each child. It is also designed to be gifted to the child, if the one chooses to, or it can remain a private prayer diary for the parent, grandparent, or godparent.

Pope Francis has said, "In the family of prayer, in strong moments and in difficult periods, may we be entrusted to one another, in order that every one of us in the family may be protected by God's love."
